Cllr May declared an interest in agenda item 7

3242/19 To suspend the meeting to hold a 10 minute public session

- The Chair reported to the residents that he would be meeting with the Chair of the Memorial Hall Committee before Christmas and will be able to give an update at the January meeting
- It was noted that three residents at the meeting, had spent some time helping the committee by cleaning the hall; but they haven't heard anything since

3243/19 To receive reports from the District & County Councillors District Cllr Kevin Dukes apologised for not being able to attend the previous two meetings due to purdah and the elections. Cllr Dukes reported on the following:

- VE Day – There is a national campaign for all Parish and County Councils do something for VE Day in 2020. One of the suggestions is for Parishes is to set up 1939-45 living memorial by planting trees. Bassetlaw is trying to encourage parishes to plant trees in any available spaces or create small arboretums; parishes could join together to find a suitable area if space is limited

If the planting is started in May then they can include other war memorials over the time as the trees grown. One of the parishes is including people that died in the war camp in their parish as well as soldiers that died when an ammunition camp blew up. The District Council would like to co-ordinate the local events and advertise them

- In January the next stage of consultation of the Local Plan will take place. Cllr Dukes advised that Elkesley residents looks at the consultation of the Local Plan as there are a couple of elements regarding Elkesley that residents will be pleased with
- The Parish Forums are now starting to be established. Cllr Savill gave an update on the setting up meeting attended for the South East Forum; which Elkesley will be part of
- There will be another Rural conference some point in the year
- Cllr Dukes highly recommended going to visit the new Pilgrim's gallery in the Retford museum

County Cllr Kevin Greaves gave his report as follows:

- There was little news from the County Council due to the recent elections.
- A full County Council meeting will be held later this week and Cllr Greaves will be putting forward a question to John Cotter, Chairman of Communities and Place; to ask why Nottinghamshire has got the highest number of pot holes in the entire UK. Nottinghamshire has 2.5 times more than the second highest area with 253,920.00 pot holes

The second question Cllr Greaves will ask is why are footpaths also being neglected; with no attention to them what so ever. If any Elkesley residents has information on footpaths which are in a poor condition; to please let him know

- Jo Horton who is the Via (Highways) Manager for our area has been promoted
- Cllr Fish asked if any more had been done about the speed in the village. Cllr Greaves reported that Jo Horton will be carrying out a speed check on the roads; his understanding is that the entire usage of the road is taken into account and the average speed limit is used to determine the speeding issue; it usually ends up to be around 34 mph

- The Chair reported that PC Nathan Thomas had sent his apologies and confirmed that he will also address be addressing this speeding issue and will be collecting further data to assist.
